

CONTACT:

Emily Oehler 703-460-5572
Diane Shnitzler 703-460-5582
March 28, Deanna Bartsch, 212- 453-2264
March 29 – April 4, 416-585-3860

Podcast Alert:
Two-Part Series Covers the Latest on Eight Non-Surgical Medical Treatments
*Interventional Radiology Procedures for Stroke Prevention, Cancer
Pediatrics, Infertile Men, and Women's Health*

New research on the latest research and trends in minimally invasive medicine will be presented live during a press conference on the following topics:

- Most Comprehensive Study to Date Shows Cognitive Improvements in Carotid Stenting Patients
- Minimally Invasive Treatment Equally Effective as Surgery for Liver Cancer According to Three-year Data
- Non-Surgical Thermal Ablation Reduces Pain From Chest Wall Tumors in 71.4 Percent of Treated Patients
- Women with Debilitating Chronic Pelvic Pain Have Non-Surgical Solution
- First Study of Uterine Fibroid Embolization for Post-Menopausal Women Shows a 92 Percent Success Rate
- Study Compares Complications of Surgical and Non-Surgical Treatments for Uterine Fibroids
- Laser Provides Children with Less Painful Treatment for Venous Malformations
- Non-Surgical Treatment for Male Infertility, Already as Good as Surgery, Improved

What: Audio Podcast: Press Conference from Society of Interventional Radiology's 31st Annual Scientific Meeting

When: Part I will be available for download on Friday, March 31 and Part II on Monday, April 3

Where: <http://feeds.feedburner.com/SIR>

How: Go to the URL above, and follow the subscription instructions on the website.

Contact: Emily Oehler at Emily@SIRweb.org
March 29 – April 4 call 416-585-3860; after April 4 call 703-460-5572

Minimum Requirements: a computer, an Internet connection, (broadband required), a portable MP3/Video player or MP3/Video-player application on your computer, podcasting software and QuickTime 7. If you experience problems downloading the podcast, send an email to webcast@multivu.com.

###